

Who Is Your God? A short study for the People of YHWH (יהוה)

One question that I was always in search of finding out was, Who is “God?” So, who is “God?” Why does no one know the actual name of the “God” that many worship each week?

Basic History

The title “God” comes from Druidic ancestry. The title is directly associated with the ancient “gods” of Europe, specifically when Rome was forcing Catholicism into every country they ruled or influenced. The title “god,” “gad,” or “God” has nothing to do with the Hebrew Elohim of the Holy Scriptures. For the most part, only Roman/Greek and Germanic pagan deities are referred to as “gods,” or “Gods.”

Other Gods

Virtually every religion in the world has one or more deities that are usually referenced as “God(s).” The Roman/Greek Church has been promoting their all-inclusive, three-in-one pagan gods for the last 700 or so years.

They have been teaching salvation by the Roman/Greek “gods” and “Christ’s.”

Ground Rules

We all know people who address “God” as the answer to all things. Many times when we patronize a business, it is not uncommon to hear someone say, “Have a blessed day.” On the surface, that seems to be ok. But, we need to define who exactly this “God” is and what “god” these people are using to bless us! We should all ask about, question, identify and verify/validate who we are actually worshipping. A careful and truthful examination of this very subject may expose why we have the problems that we have in our lives, families, cities, and in America, as well as the world today.

- A. “God” is a generic title. This title refers to a being, perfect in power, wisdom, and goodness, who is worshipped as creator and ruler of the universe. The supreme or ultimate reality. The Being perfect in power, wisdom, and goodness who is worshipped (as in Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and Hinduism) as creator and ruler of the universe: the incorporeal divine Principle ruling over all as eternal Spirit: infinite Mind: a being or object that is worshipped as having more than natural attributes and powers specifically: one controlling a particular aspect or part of reality: a person or thing of supreme value: a powerful ruler. The perfect and all-powerful spirit or being that is worshipped as the one who created and rules the universe. A spirit or being that has great power, strength, knowledge, etc., and that can affect nature and the lives of people: one of various spirits or beings worshipped in some religions. A person and especially a man who is greatly loved or admired. A person who is very important or influential in a particular field — usually plural. Something that is regarded as one of the most important things in someone's life.
- B. The first known use of the title “God” did not occur until after the 11th century. There is no evidence that this title or name was used anywhere on Earth before the 11th century. This could never have been a title or a name for The Most High of Israel. Therefore the name ‘God’ cannot, in any way, reference the sovereign Elohim of Israel.
- C. “God” is not a proper name. It is a title. The use of this title is no different from turning a word such as “teacher” into the proper name of a person or entity. Religions have turned a generic title into a proper name. Why do they not use their “God’s” actual name? Could it be that if they did, it would not be the name of the Hebrew Elohim? Makes you wonder.
- D. “God” is defined by each person, group, or culture based on personal experiences, religion, and/or beliefs.
- E. The word “God” is never addressed or named in the original Hebrew writings. The modern Bibles use the title God and Lord throughout the contemporary Bibles. Still, that title was intentionally put in place of the actual name of the Hebrew Elohim in the English Bible translations. YHWH’s (יהוה) exact name appears over 6,200 times in the Hebrew Tanakh (Old Testament). His name was removed from our bibles only a few hundred years ago and replaced with the Druidic title “God.” This was done by the Catholic Church in order to separate itself from the Hebrew culture. This is a well-known historical fact that is thoroughly documented in the Catholic Encyclopedias.

F. The Elohim of Israel has nothing to do with “gods,” and the “gods” of Rome/Greece have nothing to do with YHWH Elohim (𐤙𐤇𐤅𐤇𐤍 𐤀𐤋𐤇𐤍). That’s all part of the deception. YHWH (𐤙𐤇𐤅𐤇𐤍) said in Exodus 20:3, “YOU SHALL HAVE NO OTHER ELOHIM BEFORE ME.” YHWH (𐤙𐤇𐤅𐤇𐤍) is the only Elohim. There are no others. He never addressed “Gods” because the title “God” did not exist in Exodus 20. If there were any other “Elohim,” YHWH (𐤙𐤇𐤅𐤇𐤍) would have told us. One would think that everyone who worships who they believe that their “God” is, should know their “God’s” name. But, they don’t, why is that?

Religious Identification

Who is “God”? As a Muslim, your “God” is “Allah. If you are a Buddhist, your “God” is Buddha. If you are a Baptist, your “God” is “The Lord.” “The Lord” or “Lord” means master. The factual origins of this very title are rooted in the worship of “Ba’al.” Hence, it is completely accurate that anyone who worships “The Lord,” according to the definition, is worshipping “Ba’al.” Protestants unwittingly worship “Ba’al.” Then there is the “God incarnate,” Roman/Greek Chrestos/Deity by the name of “Jesus Chrestos,” aka “Jesus Christ,” aka Mithra, the final incarnation of Tammuz.

It is undeniable that each religious group identifies with its own understanding of who “God” is. So, who is correct? The truth for each person is this, THEY ARE ALL CORRECT according to their religion. That is the key. “God” is not the same for each person or religion.

Since the word/title “god” only goes back to around the 12th century, we need to ask the question differently. I think what we need to ask is more in line with who is the “Elohim” of the Old Testament. Who is the Father that is referenced in the New Testament? Who is the Father of the Hebrew people, YHWSHl (𐤙𐤇𐤅𐤇𐤍𐤏)?

| Tha | Sha | Ra | Qa | Taza | Pa | Eye | Sa | Na | Ma | La | Ka |

Cultures

Each religious group is typically identified by the culture that is prominent in a country or area. That is certainly not always true, but for the most part, it is true. Each culture has its own “God(s).” With a few exceptions, most cultures are not quick to identify with “Gods” outside of their culture. We must, therefore, consider cultural matters to determine who “God” is.

In God We Trust

The currency in use in the United States of America uses the phrase “IN GOD WE TRUST.” The phrase “IN GOD WE TRUST” is a Roman/Greek phrase. “IN GOD WE TRUST” is not, never was and never will be a Hebraic Phrase. If every religion on Earth declares and worships “God,” then this phrase would be accurate for every human being in the United States except for one group, the people of YHWH (יהוה). As far as I know, the only group on Earth that does not have a deity that is recognized as a “God” or as “God,” is the people of YHWH (יהוה).

The people of YHWH (יהוה) have an Elohim. An Elohim is totally different from a “God,” “GOD,” or “god.” YHWH (יהוה) has never declared himself as a “God!” Man gave the Hebrew Elohim the title and name “God” falsely. Man has profaned the holy name of YHWH (יהוה) by making His Holy name of no effect. Man has erased his Holy name, YHWH (יהוה), and gave Him an Unholy title and name, “God.” Man has relegated the Hebrew Elohim, YHWH (יהוה), into the trash pile of the pagan Roman/Greek “Gods.”

When the people of the United States make the statement, "In God We Trust," the question must be raised and answered, "Who's God?" which God do "they," as a nation, actually trust in. It should be "In YHWH We Trust," but it isn't for obvious reasons. The United States does not recognize the Hebrew Elohim, YHWH (יהוה) in any way.

So you see that the slogan for America is wrapped up in a deceptive, all-inclusive motto. "In God We Trust," which allows any and all religion-based "Gods" to be included within that statement. Except for The One True Elohim of Israel, the Most High of the Bible. One would think that preachers speak up. Why don't they?

His Name

He is the Elohim of Israel, YHWH (יהוה), and His name is above all names. This implies a particular NAME, not title, that He is to be addressed by.

The people of YHWH (יהוה) are commanded to know the name of their Elohim. This commandment is not a recommendation. We are required to search out and understand His name. We are to be educated and convinced.

The Church

I finally understood that Christians cannot declare The Name of The Most High, YHWH, because they do not worship him. They worship the Roman/Greek "gods," "God, The Lord and Jesus!" All of these titles and names are Roman/Greek, NOT Hebrew! None of them refer to the Hebrew Elohim, YHWH (אֱלֹהִים), or His Son (בְּרִיָּהּ). Not one! The people of YHWH (אֱלֹהִים) never use these pagan Roman/Greek titles or names when we address our Creator and His Son. “God,” “The Lord,” and “Jesus,” are titles and names of pagan Roman/Greek gods, christ's, and deities. The people of YHWH (אֱלֹהִים) are commanded to never have the names of the pagan gods on our tongue.

Christianity is a polytheistic religion. Polytheism is the very reason that they must have the Trinity doctrine. Christianity believes, serves, and acknowledges multiple Gods without even seeing it.

Pastors

Pastors never teach who “God” is or identify precisely what His words are. In America, the “god” of Christianity is the “State.” See my article, “Hook in Your Mouth.” The State is controlled by a Roman/Greek governmental system. This Roman/Greek government system always leads back to the Vatican. The Roman/Greek influence is all around us here in America. Everything from the buildings with the Romanesque/Greek columns out front and grant floors to the Halls of Congress. The idols that adorn the State and Federal Government buildings are all Roman/Greek Gods. Lady Liberty in the Harbor of New York is the pagan goddess Ishtar, aka Semiramis, the wife, and mother of Nimrod, a great-grandson of Noah. Nimrod was a cursed generation of the line of Ham who defiled his Father, Noah. Preachers know this information. They just keep on perpetuating the same old lies to their congregation and dismiss information like what I am telling you as conspiratorial lies. I pray that anyone reading this will do their homework.

Conclusion

As I have presented my arguments, I hope that I have given you enough information to whet your desire to learn more. I have struggled to keep from making derogatory comments and opinions to myself. I do realize that many people are coming out of the religions of the world. Many of you are scared and yet excited. Many of you are not sure of anything yet. I don't desire to scare anyone. I am generally very aware of the falsehoods that keep the lost sheep of Israel from casting away the chains holding them hostage.

This article is an attempt for the lost sheep of Israel to begin considering the words that are being used daily. Many of the words spoken in society have been used so much that we don't think about them. You must remember, words mean things. Every word that you speak has an origin, and it has a purpose. The most powerful thing that we as people have is the power of the words that come out of our mouths. YHWSHI (OWYAZL) said that the power of life and death is in the tongue. The words you speak can influence those around you. The words that you hear can directly affect you. Guard your tongue, but guard your ears. Open the scriptures and read them out loud. Let the words of the pages come alive within you, protect you, nourish you, and give you life. Then breath those exact words onto the lost sheep of Israel. Don't throw your precious pearls before the swine of the world. Listen to your friends and others. Qualify those around you. Be as wise as serpents and gentle as dove or a breath of air.

In my opinion, I believe that we should petition the Department of Treasury to replace the phrase “IN GOD WE TRUST” with “IN YHWH WE TRUST.” I think it would be at that point that we would witness marching in the streets to reverse that action. The United States is a “God” fearing nation, not an “Elohim” fearing nation. That is clearly obvious. The United States does not worship the Elohim of Israel, YHWH (AYAZL). The United States worships the Roman/Greek “gods.”

I think that a significant number of Americans would rise up against changing the phrase “IN GOD WE TRUST” to “IN YHWH WE TRUST.” Many of which would be Christians and other Bible-based groups. Suppose all of those people were actually worshipping the Elohim of Israel recorded in the Bible. Why would any Christian or other Bible-based religious organization be against doing this? Maybe it is because these same Bible-based religious groups do not know YHWH (יהוה) and worship another “God” that they know not. If that is true, then what “God” could it be that they do not know and claim to worship?

Most importantly, the people of YHWH (יהוה) must reject the “Gods” of this world and discover the Elohim of Israel. If Ba’al, then serve Ba’al, If YHWH (יהוה), then serve YHWH Elohim (יהוה יהוה).
